Empowering Communities, Transforming Lives: PLANE Making a Difference in Rural Uganda

Introduction

PLATFORM for the NEEDY (PLANE) is a non-profit and NGO operating in Uganda, with offices in Fort Portal, Western Uganda. We advocate for the protection of children, youth, and women's rights, aiming to create a healthy, violence-free society. Our empowerment programs, human rights advocacy, and health and literacy promotion efforts transform the lives of disadvantaged populations in Uganda. PLANE implements programs aimed at educational support to orphans and vulnerable children by providing scholastic materials and school fees. We also implement programs for empowering young mothers and rural women through livelihood interventions. In addition, we greatly support intervention on Gender-Based Violence prevention, sexual reproductive health rights, water, sanitation and hygiene for rural communities.

Founded in 2010 PLANE is registered with the Uganda National NGO Board Reg.No. INDR11193949NB and Kabarole District Reg.No.2323. The organization has developed potential capacity and recognition in enhancing Health promotion Programs, advocacy for the protection of children's rights with emphasis on girl child education, Youth and Teenage Mothers Empowerment, caring and improving lives of vulnerable children and ensuring a well-equipped and knowledgeable farming community.

Our Mission and Vision

Key Initiatives

Educational Support by Platform for the Needy

We focus on eliminating barriers to education for needy children and orphans. By providing school supplies, uniforms, and tuition support, Platform for the Needy ensures every child has the opportunity to receive a proper education.

Maternal and Reproductive Health Programs

Emphasizing maternal and reproductive health, Platform for the Needy conducts awareness campaigns, operates health clinics, and offers support services. This ensures women have access to essential healthcare, promoting a culture of health and wellness.

Empowerment for Teenage Mothers

Our programs aim to break the cycle of poverty by empowering young mothers with vocational training, financial literacy, and emotional support. Consequently, these young mothers can become self-sufficient and independent.

Gender-Based Violence Prevention Efforts

We advocate for the rights and protection of women and girls against all forms of abuse and discrimination. Through counseling services, legal support, and community outreach, we create a safe environment for victims to seek help and justice.

Environmental Education and Conservation

Recognizing the importance of sustainable practices, Platform for the Needy promotes environmental stewardship through awareness programs, tree planting initiatives, and waste management projects.

Conclusion

PLATFORM for the NEEEDY (PLANE) is dedicated to advocating for the rights of vulnerable children, women, and youth in rural Uganda. Through our diverse programs and initiatives, we empower individuals to create a better future for themselves and their communities. Together, we can build a brighter tomorrow.

1.1. ORGANIZATIONAL PHILOSOPHY

PLANE is an organization built on the philosophy of unity in diversity for advocacy on the rights of children and women.

Vision

A just, knowledgeable and violence free society that responds to the rights of the most vulnerable population.

Mission

To promote empowerment programs for better Health, Education and Livelihoods for the disadvantaged populations.

PLANE-Development Goal:

“Contributing to a violence free society”.

2.0. PLANE EDUCATION PROGRAM

PLATFORM for the NEEEDY started implementing the educational programs which focus on supporting the most vulnerable children in communities where we operate. Some of PLANE educational program interventions focus on provision of scholastic Materials, provision of hygiene kits (soap, detergents, and pads), provision of school fees etc. The Founder and Executive Director Mr.Waddell Steven, a journalist by profession and a victim of Gender Based Violence embarked on the journey of mobilizing the abandoned and needy children, providing them with scholastic materials and clothes. Some found them at Voice of Toro 101 FM where he was working by that time. This program was later boosted by the support of Peato Wangweera and her mother Anna Boonteang Thai nationals.

The family of Wangweera and the Thialand community has been a relief in the lives of Ugandan children who darely need support to thrive in their education. We appreciate your generous spirit. Blessings

2.1. ABOUT COMMUNITY EDUCATION PROJECT

Who is Peato Wangweera & What Motivated Him to Support Vulnerable Ugandan Children?

Mr. Peato Wangweera the pioneer supporter of the Community Education Project. Despite being a software developer , his passion for vulnerable children has transformed their lives in Uganda. We appreciate your efforts and resource mobilization towards PLANE.

Peato Wangweera, a 17-year-old high school student from Massachusetts, USA and a citizen of Thailand, embarked on a remarkable journey with his Community Education Project. His passion for volunteering led him to become a software Developer at PLATFORM for the NEEDY (PLANE), where he dedicated his time and skills to assist local Community Based Organizations in creating websites.

Driven by his deep empathy for underprivileged children, Peato launched a fundraising initiative on GoFundMe with the goal of raising $15,000 to support 200 needy Ugandan children who had been severely impacted by the Covid-19 pandemic. The economic downturn resulting from the pandemic had left many families unemployed, leaving their children without access to education and basic necessities.

As the government reopened educational facilities on January 10, 2022, many vulnerable children remained unable to return to school due to a lack of essential educational materials and support. The closure of businesses and the ensuing lockdown had plunged these families into a state of economic crisis, making it challenging for them to afford even the most basic needs. The increase in commodity prices further exacerbated their already dire situation, creating a significant obstacle to the children's education and well-being.

In response to this urgent need, Peato's fundraising campaign aimed to provide the children with essential educational materials such as exercise books, pens, pencils, soap, jelly, uniforms, shoes, food, and tuition fees. His efforts were greatly amplified by the support of his mother, Anna Boonteang, who mobilized donations and assistance from compassionate individuals and well-wishers in her community in Thailand. Together, they worked tirelessly to ensure that the children's dreams of a brighter future were not just aspirations, but achievable realities.

Through their collaborative efforts, Peato, Anna, and the community rallied around the cause, demonstrating the power of collective compassion and generosity. Their unwavering commitment to uplifting the lives of those in need exemplifies the profound impact that individuals can have when they come together with a shared goal of creating positive change. The Community Education Project serves as a beacon of hope and empowerment for the children, offering them not only access to education and essential resources but also a sense of belonging and support from a global community that cares deeply about their well-being.

Peato's dedication to making a difference in the lives of others serves as an inspiring example of the transformative power of kindness and generosity. His actions remind us that each of us, regardless of our age or background, has the ability to create meaningful change and leave a lasting impact on the world around us.

2.2. AIM OF THE CAMPAIGN:

- To support the 200 most vulnerable children to access educational support (scholastic materials that include books, pens, pencils, soap, uniform, bags and fees/tuition) to further their education in nurseries, primaries, secondary and vocational schools.
- To promote improved stay in schools and access to education amongst the vulnerable children.

DIRECTOR'S FORWARD:

In a heartwarming display of compassion and generosity, Waddell Steven Ainganiza, the Founder and Executive Director of PLATFORM for the NEEDY (PLANE), extends his deepest gratitude to Mr. Peato Wangweera, his dear loving Mom Madam Anna Boontang Varanya, the Wangweera family, and the Thailand community for their unwavering support in transforming the lives of needy Ugandan children and orphans through access to quality education.

Their dedication and generosity have been instrumental in uplifting the lives of many and fostering a brighter future for the next generation. The annual contribution of $2724 from this compassionate group of individuals has been a lifeline for the organization, enabling PLANE to expand its reach and impact in the local communities. The funds have been instrumental in providing essential scholastic materials such as books, pens, pencils, soap, toilet tissues, and fees for the beneficiaries, facilitating their educational journey and equipping them with the tools they need to succeed.

Through the collective efforts of the Thailand community and the Wangweera family, the number of beneficiaries supported by PLANE has grown significantly from 50 to 80, a testament to the positive and tangible impact of their generosity. The parents and guardians of these children have expressed their heartfelt appreciation for the support extended to them, recognizing the profound difference it has made in the lives of their young ones.

The addition of passionate volunteer Mr. Rintaro Hirota, whose fundraising efforts from Japan resulted in a contribution of $1370 one time, further exemplifies the power of united efforts in effecting positive change. The combined contributions and dedication of individuals across borders have not only increased the number of beneficiaries but have also strengthened the collective impact on the community, demonstrating the transformative power of collaboration and compassion.

At PLANE, a commitment to transparency and accountability is paramount in ensuring that the funds received are utilized effectively and reach those in need. With the involvement of guardians, parents, and community leaders in handover ceremonies, as well as the production of documentary videos to showcase the impact of the contributions, PLANE strives to demonstrate the tangible difference being made in the lives of vulnerable Ugandan children.

As Waddell Steven Ainganiza extends his heartfelt appreciation for the continued support and generosity, my emphasis is on the importance of continued cooperation and collaboration between PLANE, the contributors, and the Thailand community. It is through this continued partnership that lasting change can be realized, and the lives of many Ugandans can be positively impacted. Together, they stand as beacons of hope, lighting the path towards a brighter and more promising future for all.

Mr. Rintaro PLANE Global Ambassador in Japan . He does spreading of the brand mission of the organization . Rintaro has been volunteering for over two years now as a Graphic Designer . Thanks for the amazing work you are doing for PLANE.

INSPIRING CHANGE: RINTARO'S DEDICATION TO TRANSFORMING LIVES IN UGANDA

Rintaro, a high school student driven by a profound passion for volunteering and supporting underserved communities, embarked on a transformative journey to uplift the lives of needy children in Uganda. His unwavering commitment to making a difference has left a lasting impact on those he has touched, showcasing the transformative power of compassion and dedication.

Joining hands with the Ugandan community, Rintaro became an integral part of the Community Education Project, where he has volunteered as a Graphic Designer at PLANE for three remarkable years. Immersing himself in the mission to empower vulnerable children, Rintaro witnessed firsthand the harsh realities of poverty and adversity that hindered their access to education and a brighter future.

Motivated by a burning desire to bring about positive change, Rintaro took the initiative to organize a fundraiser on Airfunding.com with the goal of raising $10,000 to support 250 Orphans and vulnerable children in Uganda. Despite the challenges and obstacles he faced, his relentless efforts and unwavering passion enabled him to raise $1370, a testament to his resilience and determination in the face of adversity.

As Rintaro's story resonated with others, he was joined by his family and the compassionate Japanese community who shared his vision of creating a better future for the children in Uganda. Together, they formed a formidable team dedicated to making a tangible difference in the lives of those who needed it most.

In Uganda, the plight of Orphans and Vulnerable Children (OVCs) is an urgent call to action, with UNICEF reporting a staggering 2.5 million orphans in the country. The devastating effects of HIV/AIDS, domestic violence, and natural disasters have left these children orphaned and vulnerable, struggling to access basic necessities and education.

Children in rural communities such as Fort Portal and Kabarole in Western Uganda face formidable challenges in accessing education due to a lack of essential resources such as scholastic materials, food, and medical services. The dire circumstances in which these children live often force them to abandon their education, perpetuating a cycle of poverty and limited opportunities.

Recognizing the crucial role of education in transforming lives, Rintaro's fundraising campaign aimed to provide the OVCs with vital educational materials and support, including exercise books, pens, pencils, uniforms, shoes, and tuition/fees. Inspired by the theme, "You can't avoid orphan stories, child. Every story is an orphan story. We are all orphaned sooner or later." by Gabrielle Zevin, Rintaro's campaign served as a beacon of hope and empowerment for the children, offering them a chance at a brighter and more promising future.

Through his tireless efforts and unwavering dedication, Rintaro has demonstrated the profound impact that one individual can have in effecting positive change and transforming lives. His story serves as an inspiration to all, highlighting the importance of empathy, compassion, and the belief that each of us has the power to make a difference, no matter how small our actions may seem. Rintaro's legacy will continue to shine brightly, illuminating the path towards a better and more compassionate world for all.

The Untiring Commitment of Hirota Rintaro in Transforming Ugandan Lives

Mr. Hirota Rintaro and his family. The compassionate family mobilized resources to support the organization. He mobilized his workmates to support his son Rintaro to realize his goal. Thanks Mr. Hirota for your generosity.

In the heartwarming narrative of philanthropy and perseverance, Hirota Rintaro emerges as a beacon of hope and compassion, dedicated to changing the lives of needy Ugandans. His unwavering commitment to making a difference was bolstered by the unwavering support of his parents, culminating in a transformative journey that touched the lives of many.

Hirota Rintaro, fondly known as Daddy to his son Rintaro Junior, wholeheartedly embraced his son's passion for helping others. Recognizing the profound impact that Rintaro's efforts could have on the lives of the less fortunate in Uganda, Hirota took it upon himself to rally support for the fundraising campaign. With a resolute spirit, he reached out to his family, relatives, and colleagues, spreading the message of empowerment and compassion.

As the fundraising campaign on Airfunding.com drew to a close, a series of challenges emerged, causing a delay in the disbursement of the funds to the designated organization, PLATFORM for the NEEDY (PLANE). Despite encountering obstacles and delays, Hirota remained undeterred in his quest to ensure that the collected funds reached their intended beneficiaries.

Faced with the frustrating prospect of waiting for an extended period for the funds to be released, Hirota took matters into his own hands. Determined to see the fruits of their labor materialize, he embarked on a mission to personally visit Airfunding and demand the release of the funds. His tenacity and perseverance paid off as the funds were finally liberated, paving the way for impactful change in the lives of the needy Ugandans.

Deep gratitude to our esteemed donors! Your generosity fuels our mission, transforming lives and communities. Thank you for believing in us and our cause!

APPRECIATION FROM THE DIRECTOR:

The heartfelt appreciation extended by the PLATFORM for the NEEDY (PLANE) community serves as a testament to Hirota Rintaro's exemplary leadership and unwavering dedication. His relentless efforts to mobilize funds and ensure their timely delivery have not gone unnoticed, earning him the gratitude and admiration of all those touched by his selfless actions.

In the narrative of Hirota Rintaro and his family's collective endeavor, the essence of compassion, solidarity, and resilience shines through brightly. Their collaborative efforts have not only transformed the lives of the needy Ugandans but have also inspired others to join in the noble pursuit of making the world a better place for all. May their story serve as a poignant reminder of the transformative power of empathy and unwavering dedication in effecting provision of services to the needy communities.

"From Struggle to Success: The Inspiring Journey of Joel Rutesengereza"

Joel Rutengereza PLANE pioneer Beneficiary Now at University

Joel Happy To Have Joined PLANE that Transformed His Life

At just 22 years old, Joel Rutesengereza's story embodies resilience, determination, and the transformative power of education. A first-year student specializing in Physics, Chemistry, and IT at Kampala International University, Joel's journey to pursuing his passion was not without obstacles. Born to Grace Kajumba, a single mother of four in Nyakagongo village, Fort Portal Tourism City, Joel faced financial challenges that almost derailed his dreams of becoming a doctor or pharmacist. With the high costs of private university education out of reach, Joel found solace in pursuing a science education course, a more affordable option.

Despite showing academic promise with a remarkable 9 aggregate score in Primary Seven, Joel's education path was fraught with financial hurdles. Rejected from schools due to unpaid fees, his future seemed uncertain until PLATFORM for the NEEDY (PLANE) stepped in to offer a lifeline.

Through PLANE's Orphans Education Program, Joel found a renewed sense of hope and opportunity. From boarding schools in Entebbe to Mpanga Secondary School in Fort Portal, Joel excelled academically, thanks to PLANE's unwavering support and the donors.

Today, Joel stands as a testament to the impact of accessible education and community support. With dreams of becoming a teacher to inspire future generations, Joel's gratitude towards PLANE and his unwavering faith in a brighter future serve as a beacon of hope for all. His story is a reminder that with determination and support, any obstacle can be overcome, and success can be achieved.

"Empowering Dreams: How a Global Initiative Transformed Sheila's Education Journey"

PLANE Executive Director Waddell Steven (Blue) hands over money for fees to Sheila Birungi as head teacher and students witness

In a heartwarming display of international cooperation and generosity, a dedicated team of students from Ringtoto College in New Zealand, led by Yule Chon, came together to support the educational journey of Birungi Sheila, a determined 17-year-old student from Harugongo, Kabarole district.

Facing financial barriers that threatened her academic aspirations, Sheila's path to completing her senior four examinations seemed uncertain due to her mother's health challenges. She suffer from a spinal cord injury that stopped her from vending her vegetables. However, with the collaborative effort of the Ringtoto College team, who organized a fundraiser and sold cookies to raise $200, a ray of hope shone upon Sheila's dreams.

She Needs our support

- Sheila Birungi, is a bright and ambitious student from Harugongo, Kabarole district.
- Her dreams of completing senior four are slipping away due to financial constraints.
- Despite her mother's debilitating spinal cord injury, Sheila remains determined to succeed.
- She urgently needs our support to pay for two terms' fees and registration costs at Kiwamba Peas Secondary School in boarding worth 12m.

Your contribution, no matter how small,
It will be a beacon of hope for this resilient young girl to complete S4 this year.

Let's ensure Sheila's potential isn't limited by circumstance.

Sheila Birungi Local Fundraiser organized by PLANE

A fundraiser organized by Yule Chon and his colleagues from Rintoto College in New Zealand. $200 was collected to support Sheila Birungi's education. The funds in addition to what was raised by PLANE locally on radio and social media supported Sheila's registration for final examination and clearing two terms fees. PLANE appreciates all the supporters of this fundraiser and Ringtoto college administration for the support.

The timely donation, combined with local fundraising efforts through social media and radio campaigns, enabled PLATFORM for the NEEDY (PLANE) to secure the necessary funds for Sheila's school fees and registration costs at Kicwamba Peas Secondary School. The collective support from volunteers in New Zealand, led by Ambassador Yule Chon, her colleagues Poresh Young, Joshua Yang and Jenna Hwan and the administration and staff of Ringtoto College, exemplifies the transformative impact of global solidarity in changing lives.

As Sheila prepares to embark on her educational journey with renewed optimism, PLANE extends its deepest gratitude to all those who contributed to this cause. Your generosity has not only ensured Sheila's immediate academic success but has also opened doors for her future endeavors in vocational training.

Together, we have demonstrated that every contribution, no matter how small, holds the power to ignite hope and empower individuals to fulfill their potential. Let us continue to be the guiding light that Sheila and many others need to overcome challenges and realize their aspirations.

3.1 LESSONS LEARNT

- Small contributions to vulnerable children can be appreciated and can be a turning point in improving the lives of vulnerable children and their care takers/Parents.
- Some disaster can be detrimental to the economy affecting especially the neediest communities, their livelihoods and access to social services.
- Working with the local leaders to identify the most vulnerable children to benefit reduces bias especially where the selection criteria is well known to the leaders and community members.
- Education needs a sustainable funding because the scholastic items are given termly, so when we miss some of the children dropout.

3.2 CHALLENGES

- Out of the 200 needy children we had target only 80 have benefited. This is due to lack of support and funding from donors.
- Our targeted $15000 wasn't yet realised to enable 200 children access scholastic materials continuously. If we got this money we would have reached out the 200 children that we had registered.
- There is still an overwhelming number of children who come to our office seeking for assistance but they are not helped.
- Most of our supported children do not get lunch at school and this impacts on their academic performance.
- The funding we get is not enough to support the 80 children for three (3) academic terms.

4.0 FUTURE PLAN:

- We plan to meet our Ambassadors in Thailand and Japan and discuss the possibility of the sustainability of the project.
 - Using our Global Ambassadors, we in the process of expanding our partnerships with Thailand, Japan, UK and USA communities and other countries.
 - We are open to an invitation by any of our funders and partners and have the opportunity to talk to them and their community
- Present PLANE mission and programs and also appreciate them for the amazing work done of supporting the children in Uganda.
- We plan to rally support and start a vocational school to accommodate those who complete senior four ("O" level) acquire knowledge and skills. This can help in the fight youth unemployment. This initiation needs your generous support.

5.0 CONCLUSION

I want to express my heartfelt gratitude to all our supporters and donors for their unwavering dedication to PLATFORM for the NEEDY (PLANE). It is through your generosity and commitment that we have been able to make a tangible difference in the lives of underserved communities in Uganda. As we reflect on the successful completion of Phase I, II, and III of the project, we are filled with pride and gratitude for the positive impact we have collectively achieved. The ongoing support and enthusiasm from everyone involved - be it the children, parents, guardians, or local leaders - have been instrumental in making this project a success. As we embark on the fourth year of implementation, we are determined to continue our mission with even greater fervor. Through intensified resource mobilization efforts, we aim to not only sustain our current beneficiaries but also provide enhanced support to ensure their educational journey is secure and prosperous. Together, we are writing a story of hope, empowerment, and transformation. Thank you for being a vital part of this journey towards a brighter and more inclusive future for all.
